NSC REVIEW
COMPLETED

25X1

In paragraph 3 of that memorandum, the Director was charged with ensuring that the appropriate Congressional committees be briefed on the matter in the course of budget and appropriation hearings and as part of the Agency's covert action update briefing.

2. Due to the significance of the subject matter, and the fact that no update briefings are scheduled for the near future, the question has arisen whether it might be a good idea to brief at least the SSCI on the subject at this time and not wait for budget presentations or the update briefing. Also, I am informed that the S&I team currently reviewing DDO activities has specifically asked for information with respect to this subject matter and that the DDO feels that briefing the S&I team on the President's approval at this time would demonstrate the Agency's desire to be responsive on a timely basis to the S&I team's concerns.

3. I see no reason not to brief at least the SSCI and the S&I team at this time.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Presidential Decision--Paramilitary Capabilities

At the 26 November 1976 meeting of the Operations Advisory Group (OAG) there was unanimous endorsement of the concept that the President should have a covert paramilitary capability available to employ in selected cases in support of U.S. policy. The Chairman of the OAG subsequently established that the question of funding at immediate issue was [redacted] proposed for the FY 1978 budget, rather than the complete package through FY 1980 which was cited in the paper submitted by CIA. The Chairman also obtained a written statement from the Secretary of Defense (who had been unable to attend the OAG meeting) endorsing the vote of his representative who attended and concurring in submitting CIA's proposal to the President.

On 17 December 1976, after review of the CIA paper [redacted]

[redacted] and the recommendations of the OAG, the President approved the maintenance of a covert capability for conducting paramilitary operations and the inclusion of the [redacted] figure in the FY 1978 budget.

The President was cognizant that his first Presidential Finding of 10 January 1975 authorized the support necessary to the tasks and operations covered by it, and the fact that CIA had reported to him that it had utilized this authority in maintaining a paramilitary capability. Any employment of that capability, of course, will require a Presidential Finding in each case. The President was advised that this specific action will be briefed to the appropriate committees of the Congress in the course of budget and appropriations hearings and as part of CIA's periodic update reporting, and the Director of CIA is asked to see that this is done.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable Edward H. Levi
The Attorney General

FROM : E.H. Knoche
Acting Director

SUBJECT : CIA Procurement of Paramilitary
Equipment

1. In the course of the OAG meeting on 26 November 1976, a question was raised regarding a memorandum prepared by CIA dated 20 November, subject "Future CIA Role in Covert Paramilitary Operations." The question was whether, under Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, a new and specific Presidential finding is required, together presumably with reports to the various congressional committees that receive briefings on covert action matters, as a condition precedent to the expenditure of funds by CIA to procure paramilitary weapons and equipment. It is the opinion of my General Counsel, who looked at the Section 662 issue before the CIA memorandum was submitted to the OAG, that no new and specific Section 662 finding is required.

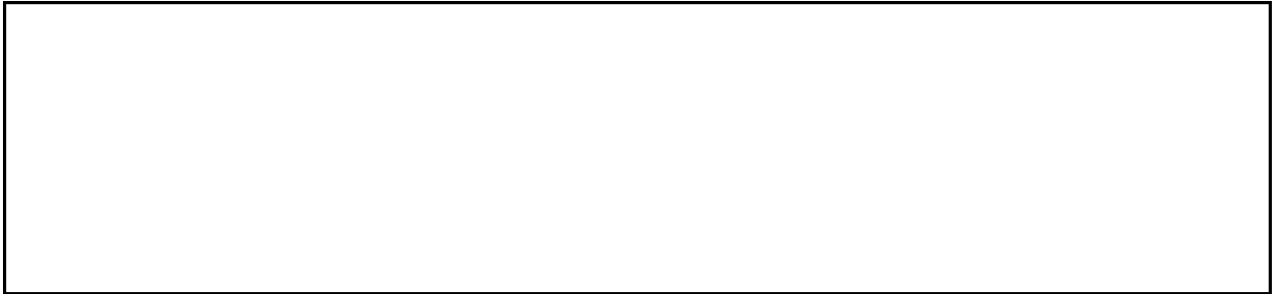

2. The relevant statutory provision bars CIA expenditures "for operations in foreign countries, other than activities intended solely for obtaining necessary intelligence," unless, among other things, the President finds that "each such operation is important to the national security of the United States." Therefore, the questions in the present circumstances are whether the contemplated purchases of paramilitary supplies, many of which will be procured abroad, constitute an "operation" within the meaning of the statute and, if so, whether the purchases are already authorized by an existing and applicable Presidential finding.

Attached is a Memorandum for the Record suggesting that it would be appropriate to brief the SSCI and the S&I team from the House Appropriations Committee at this time on the President's approval of a program to maintain a paramilitary capability. Before going ahead with such briefings I want to be sure you have no problems with such briefings this time.
